Jon Croker

Director

Represented by:
Jack Thomas

Jon's produced credits include 'The Woman In Black: Angel Of Death', the production draft of 'Paddington', 'Desert Dancer', 'Fast Girls' and 'In Fear'. Recent projects include the US remake of French thriller 'The Prey' for Dreamworks, 'The Famous Five' for Working Title, a ghost story for Fox Searchlight, and an adaptation of a novel about a Ukrainian penguin. He began his career on the 'Harry Potter' movies, working with directors Alfonso Cuaron and Mike Newell, and even managed to write his own spell. During that time he made a feature film on weekends for £650, which nobody will ever see. Prior to screenwriting, Jon was a Script Editor at the UK Film Council and worked with a wide range of filmmakers including Jane Campion, Duncan Jones and Joe Cornish, and on films such as 'Berberian Sound Studio', 'The Iron Lady' and 'Deep Blue Sea' (not the shark one). He has also built high tension cattle fences with Ben Whishaw, Rhys Ifans and Eddie Marsan, but decided against pursuing a career in it.
