Terry McDonough

Director

Terry McDonough is an award-winning British television and film director. Recent credits for British television include episodic dramas KILLING EVE (Sid Gentle/BBC America), COLD FEET (Big Talk/ITV) and THE STREET (BBC), all of which he lead directed; single film ANTHONY (LA Productions/BBC), for which he was BAFTA-nominated; and Mark Gatiss single film AN ADVENTURE IN SPACE AND TIME (BBC), for which he received BAFTA and International Emmy nominations. For his work on THE STREET he won an International Emmy and numerous RTS and BAFTA Awards. His work for American television includes various episodes of the internationally-acclaimed BREAKING BAD (AMC) and BETTER CALL SAUL (AMC); Emmy-nominated dramedy anthology DOLLY PARTON'S HEARTSTRINGS (Dixie Pixie/Netflix); and sci-fi epic THE EXPANSE (Syfy), written by Mark Fergus and Hawk Ostby (CHILDREN OF MEN, IRONMAN), for which he won a HUGO Award. His debut feature film DAMAGED (Red Sea/Signature), starring Samuel L. Jackson and Vincent Cassel, was released in April 2024.
