Frank Cottrell-Boyce

Writer

Represented by:
Greg Hunt

Frank Cottrell-Boyce is a multi-award-winning British screenwriter and novelist. His screenwriting credits for film include 24 Hour Party People and the recent adaptation of Michael Morpurgo's Kensuke's Kingdom. Along with Danny Boyle, he devised the Opening Ceremony for the London 2012 Olympics. For publishing, he is represented by Zoë Waldie at RCW Literary Agency.

FEATURE FILM

DATE	PRODUCTION (ROLE)	COMPANY	PROJECT DETAILS
2024	Paddington in Peru	StudioCanal / Columbia Pictures / Stage 6 Films / Marmalade Pictures	Re-write
2024	The Beautiful Game	Blueprint Pictures / Netflix
2023	Kensuke's Kingdom	Jigsaw Films
2019	The Two Popes	Netflix	Re-write
2018	Sometimes Always Never	Hurricane Films
2017	Goodbye Christopher Robin	DJ Films / Fox Searchlight
2017	Earth: One Amazing Day	BBC Earth
2013	The Railway Man	Archer Street Productions
2005	Tristram Shandy: A Cock and Bull Story	BBC Films
2004	Millions	Pathe / Fox Searchlight
2003	Code 46	BBC Films
2002	Revengers Tragedy	Bard Entertainments / HanWay
2002	24 Hour Party People	Revolution Films
2000	Pandaemonium	Arts Council / PolyGram
2000	The Claim	Alberta

1998	Hilary and Jackie	October Films
1997	Welcome to Sarajevo	Miramax / Film4
1996	Saint-Ex	BBC

TELEVISION

DATE	PRODUCTION (ROLE)	COMPANY	PROJECT DETAILS
2021	Stephen	HTM / ITV	Writer & Executive Producer
2017	Doctor Who (Season 10, Episode 2)	BBC
2014	Doctor Who (Season 8, Episode 10)	BBC
2012	London 2012 Olympic Opening Ceremony: Isles of Wonder	BBC
2009	Framed	BBC
2008	God On Trial	Hat Trick

IN DEVELOPMENT

PRODUCTION (ROLE)	COMPANY	PROJECT DETAILS
Untitled Project	Route 24
Untitled TV Series	Blueprint
Untitled Feature Film	The Bureau
Liverpool Mayor	Mammoth
Thatcher Stole My Trousers	House	TV Series in development
Sputnik's Guide to Life on Mars		Major animation adaption of his novel