Phoebe Waller-Bridge

Writer

Phoebe Waller-Bridge is an English actress, writer and producer. She has become one of the UK's most celebrated literary figures, with her stage and screen work having garnered widespread acclaim from critics and audiences worldwide. Fleabag was first performed in 2013 at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, where it won a Fringe First Award. Phoebe has since performed the play in numerous runs around the world from New York to South Korea. Following its popularity on stage, Fleabag was adapted for television and ran for two seasons, winning six Emmy Awards, two Golden Globes and two BAFTAs. Phoebe is also known for her Channel 4 sitcom Crashing, BBC America's Killing Eve, and for co-writing the 25th James Bond film No Time to Die. Phoebe is represented for acting by Aileen McEwan at Hatton McEwan Penford.
