J.P. Robson

Represented by:
Jago Irwin

J.P. Robson is a writer from the North-East of England. His debut play ‘I Woke Up Feeling Electric’ was staged in London in 2020 and his TV pilot ‘The Corpse that Went to War’ won the Sir Peter Ustinov Television Scriptwriting Award at the International Emmys in 2021. AWARDS Winner, Sir Peter Ustinov Television Scriptwriting Award, International Emmys, 2021 Quarter-finalist, Raindance Festival, 2022 Shortlist, Alpine Theatre Fellowship Prize, 2022 Shortlist, Through the Mill Playwriting Award, 2021 Finalist, Phil Fox Award, 2020

THEATRE

DATE	PRODUCTION (ROLE)	COMPANY
2025-2026	Error de Conexión (Writer)	Dos Medias Lunas Producciones
2020	I Woke Up Feeling Electric (Writer)	Hope Theatre

INDEPENDENT TALENT GROUP LTD

40 WHITFIELD STREET LONDON W1T 2RH
TEL: +44 (0)20 7636 6565 FAX: +44 (0)20 7323 0101

REGISTERED IN ENGLAND NUMBER 4338525 EMPLOYMENT AGENCY,
REGISTERED OFFICE 40 WHITFIELD STREET LONDON W1T 2RH