

Lynsey Miller

Lynsey is a BAFTA-winning filmmaker hailing from Scotland. She is currently lead director on a new series for BBC1, having recently helmed episodes of Apple's SURFACE S2 for Hello Sunshine, Amazon's HOUSE OF DAVID S2 for The Wonder Project and THE TURKISH DETECTIVE for Miramax / Paramount +. Prior to that Lynsey directed the 3-part drama ANNE BOLEYN (2021) for Sony. Lynsey is also active as a screenwriter, and is currently developing an original crime drama, THE WOLVES, with Rabbit Track Pictures and original medical drama, IS THE PATIENT BREATHING, with Moonriver Entertainment. Previous projects include the BAFTA nominated the 4-part drama DEADWATER FELL (2020) and single dramas DOING MONEY (2018) and the BAFTA nominated THE BOY WITH THE TOPKNOT (2017). DOING MONEY picked up a number of awards including Best Narrative Feature at Greenpoint Brooklyn, Construir Cine Buenos Aires, Harlem Film Festival, Bahamas International Film Festival and Desert Edge Film Festival Rajasthan. Best Picture & Best Director at Phoenix Film Festival, Arizona and the Golden Sphinx Grand Prix & Best Director at VIFF. It was nominated for Best Single Drama at both the RTS and Broadcast Awards. THE BOY WITH THE TOPKNOT's wins include the Festival Medal for Drama Special at the New York Festival of Film & Television and the Race & Ethnicity Scripted Award at MIPCOM TV Excellence Awards in Cannes. Her first piece for television, LIZARD GIRL won a Children's BAFTA and The Japan Prize.
