

Ellice Stevens

Writer / Producer

Represented by:

Jessica Stewart

Ellice is a writer, theatre-maker, performer and co-founder of Breach Theatre. As a writer, she has co-written all of Breach's theatrical shows. Her recent performance credits for the company include It's True, It's True, It's True and Artemisia on Trial. Outside of the company, Ellice has worked as a deviser and performer with companies such as The Handlebards and Barrel Organ. She also recently worked with the National Gallery as a presenter for their documentary to accompany their Artemisia exhibition. Ellice has previously fulfilled a place on Clore's Emerging Leaders course, nominated and funded by New Diorama Theatre's Female Leadership Fund.