Ellice Stevens

Writer / Producer

Represented by:

Jessica Stewart

Ellice is a writer, theatre-maker, performer and co-founder of Breach Theatre. As a writer, she has co-written all of Breach's theatrical shows. Her recent performance credits for the company include It's True, It's True and Artemisia on Trial. Outside of the company, Ellice has worked as a devisor and performer with companies such as The Handlebards and Barrel Organ. She also recently worked with the National Gallery as a presenter for their documentary to accompany their Artemisia exhibition. Ellice has previously fulfilled a place on Clore's Emerging Leaders course, nominated and funded by New Diorama Theatre's Female Leadership Fund.

