Grant O'Rourke

Scottish actor Grant O'Rourke, long recognised for his work across stage and screen - including roles in OUTLANDER and SHETLAND - has reached a new level of international attention with the success of THE INCOMER, a breakout indie hit that premiered at the Sundance Film Festival. In the film, Grant delivers a standout performance as one half of an eccentric sibling duo, alongside Gayle Rankin. The film also stars Domhnall Gleeson and was written and directed by Louis Paxton.
