

Clare Holman

Director

As a versatile and passionate storyteller, Clare brings a unique 360-degree perspective shaped by her acting, directing, and writing experience. Whether she is directing on set, shaping a script, or guiding performances in front of the camera, she is known for delivering high-quality work at pace and thriving in fast-moving, collaborative environments. Over the course of her 30-year career, she has built an extensive network of industry talent, and continues to draw on these connections to bring together the right people for each project. Her work, such as The Escort and Only The Lonely, has been recognised at festivals such as Aesthetica and the Groucho Film Festival, and she has directed award-winning films with incredibly tight turnarounds, as well as episodes for commercial television. Alongside her directing and writing work, she leads screen acting masterclasses at The Actors Studio at Pinewood, helping actors unlock their full potential. Whether Clare is developing scripts with production companies or diving into a shoot, she brings energy, empathy, and a strong creative vision to everything she does. <https://vimeo.com/1057901962>
